

The peace of the country and the buzz of the city – both are within a stone's throw of the Park Hotel Bremen, the only „Leading Hotel of the World“ in northwest Germany. Discover for yourself the charms of our special place, formerly the country residence of a German duke. The Park Hotel Bremen sits in a peaceful position at the heart of the 200 hectares of the famous Bürgerpark. The romantic old town of the city is only a few minutes away, as does the conference centre, Stadthalle, central railway station, and airport.
